DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a locating device comprising a sheet having a plurality of reference points marked thereon, classified in class 362, subclass 618.
- II. Claims 9-19, drawn to in combination and a method comprising a measurement instrument, a light guide plate, and a location device, classified in class 356, subclass 625.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because [the subcombination requires a locating device comprising a sheet having a plurality of reference points marked thereon. The subcombination has separate utility such as [in a location device which does require the particulars of the combination (e.g. measurement instrument and a light guide plate)].

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
